Berlin, Mar 11, 2019

bauhaus imaginista narrates the international histories of the Bauhaus. Since its foundation the Bauhaus was in contact with other Avant-Garde movements of the 20th century. bauhaus imaginista suggests a reading of the Bauhaus as a cosmopolitan project with global resonances: A major exhibition and two conferences trace transnational relations, correspondences, and narratives of migration, going beyond the years when it was active as a school (1919–1933).

Following exhibitions, symposia and workshops in 2018 in Hangzhou, Kyoto and Tokyo, São Paulo, Lagos, Delhi, New York and Moscow, all four chapters of the exhibition and research project will be brought together at HKW on more than 21,000 square feet with historic objects and new commissioned works by Kader Attia, Luca Frei, Wendelien van Oldenborgh, The Otolith Group, Alice Creischer, Doreen Mende, Paulo Tavares and Zvi Efrat.

You are cordially invited to the press conference and the ensuing tour of bauhaus imaginista on Thursday, March 14, 2019 at 11 am at Haus der Kulturen der Welt.
